

THE DUBLIN REVIEW.

88

THIRD SERIES.

VOL. V.

JANUARY—APRIL.

MDCCCLXXXI.

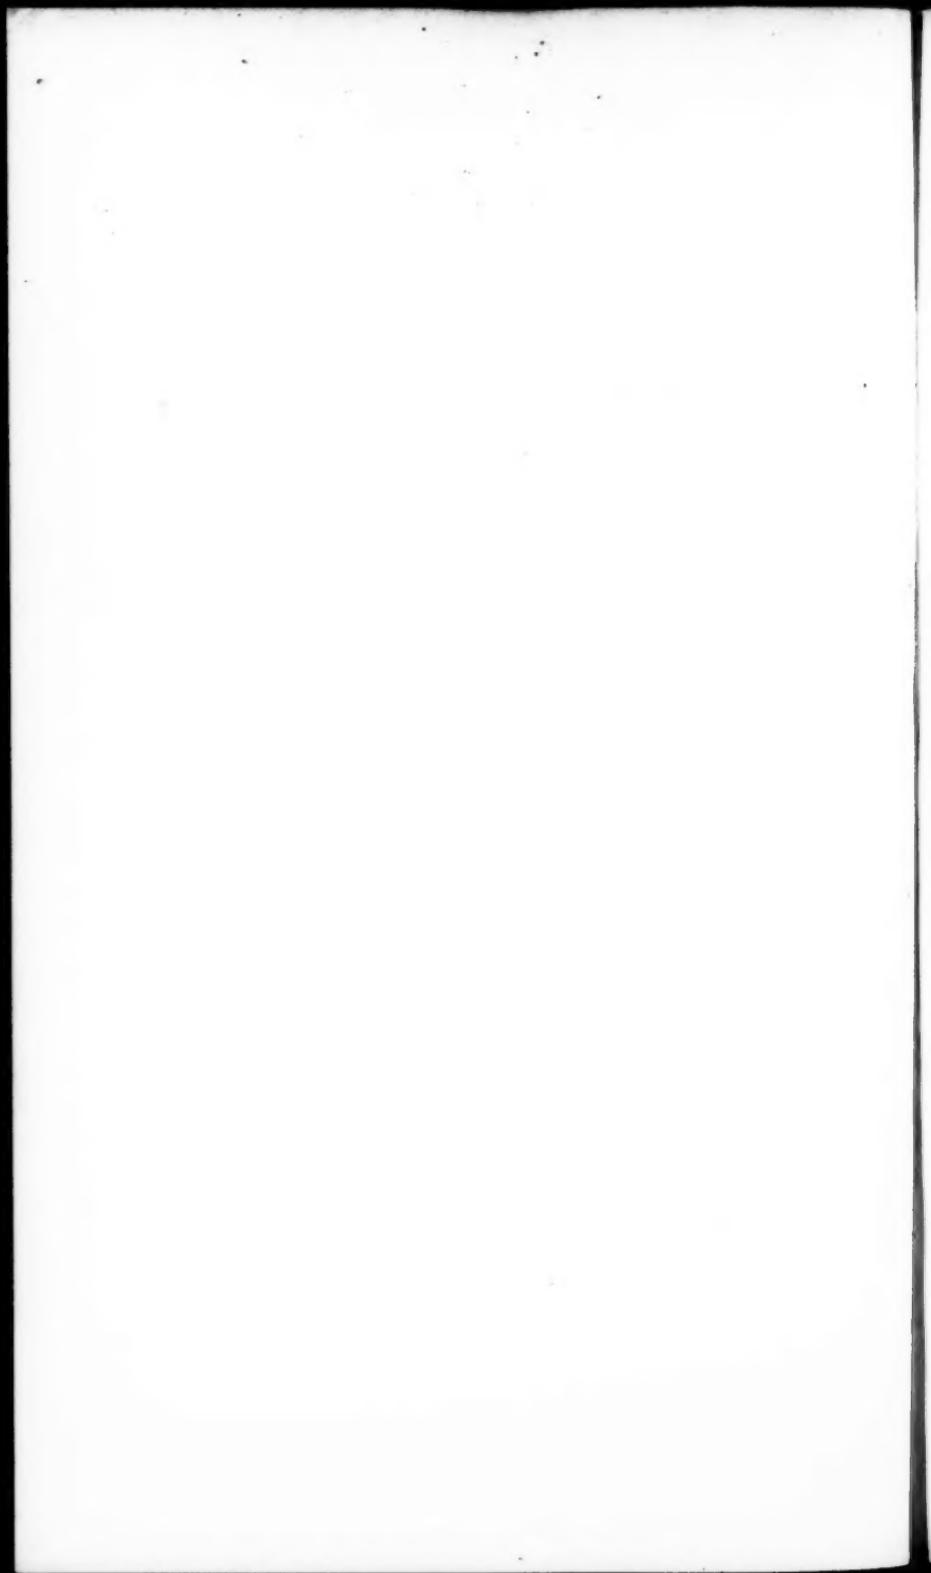

PUBLIC LIBRARY,
DETROIT, MICH.
SEP 17 1963

LONDON: BURNS & OATES.

DUBLIN: M. H. GILL & SON.

BALTIMORE: KELLY, PIET & CO.

—
1881.

CONTENTS.

ART. I.—DON JUAN OF AUSTRIA PAGE: 1
Character of Philip II.—Character of Don Juan—Juan sent as Commander-in-Chief to Granada—His ability as a General—Juan as Captain of the Holy League against the Turks—Philip afraid of Juan's success and ambition—Juan aims at being King of Tunis—Popularity makes Juan ambitious—He plans to marry Mary Queen of Scots—He is sent to govern the Low Countries—Philip suspects and watches Juan—Murder of Escovedo—Juan's trials and sufferings—He dies of fever—Philip's vengeance for Perez' treachery.

ART. II.—THE BRAIN AND THE MIND 25.
Dr. Bastian's book very disappointing—Analysis of book; Origin of nervous system—Declamation against orthodox views—Misconception of "Mind"—Confusion of terms and loose statements—Sensation, Ideation, and Perception—Spalding's observations on instinct—Dr. Bastian's explanation of instinct—Nascent Reason, Imagination, and Volition—Priority of speech or thought—Men conscious automata—No free will.

ART. III.—THE BENEDICTINES IN WESTERN AUSTRALIA 56:
Method of Benedictine Missions—Dom Salvado and Dom Serra go to Swan River district—Their first sight of the savages—English and Benedictine estimate of the savage—The two missionaries start for the bush—The hardships they endured—Dom Salvado's method of raising funds—Forbidden by British authorities to keep their first settlement—They found New Nursia—Their success with the aborigines—Their first school—Dom Salvado made a bishop, but returns to his colony—Government, life and success of the colony—True character and capabilities of the aboriginal.

PAGE
76

ART. IV.—TRACTARIANISM AND RITUALISM

Cardinal Newman's "Difficulties of Anglicans"—Realization of what he predicted in it—Spirit and result of Tractarian movement—Result of its appeal to antiquity and authority—It has only influenced individuals—Ritualism illogical and at variance with its bishops—Ritualism goes beyond its formularies—English Church a National Church—English bishops officers of the Establishment—Platform of the "Establishment" not a road to the Church—Abbé Martin's and Dr. Lee's books.

97

ART. V.—THE POSITION OF CATHOLICS IN THE UNITED STATES

Spread of Catholicity in the States—Troubles and dangers of the American Church—Education difficulties—Dangers of Irish emigrants in American cities—A Land of Promise waits them in the West—Example of the Mormons—Recent Catholic colonies in Western States—The Irish Catholic Colonization Association and its purpose—Colonization and the further progress of Catholicity—Advantages of agricultural colonies—Practical efforts to be made.

117

ART. VI.—EVERLASTING PUNISHMENT

True aspect of the controversy—Summary of Catholic teaching on Hell—"Eternal duration" the cardinal point of the controversy—Canon Farrar and Dr. Pusey on Scripture terms—"Ethical" objections to eternal punishment—Natural argument for Hell—What kind of sinfulness merits Hell—Protestant admission of Purgatory—Nature of "pain" and "pain of sense"—How the Blessed and God view sufferings of the lost—Sin and death-bed repentance.

145

ART. VII.—"ENDYMION"

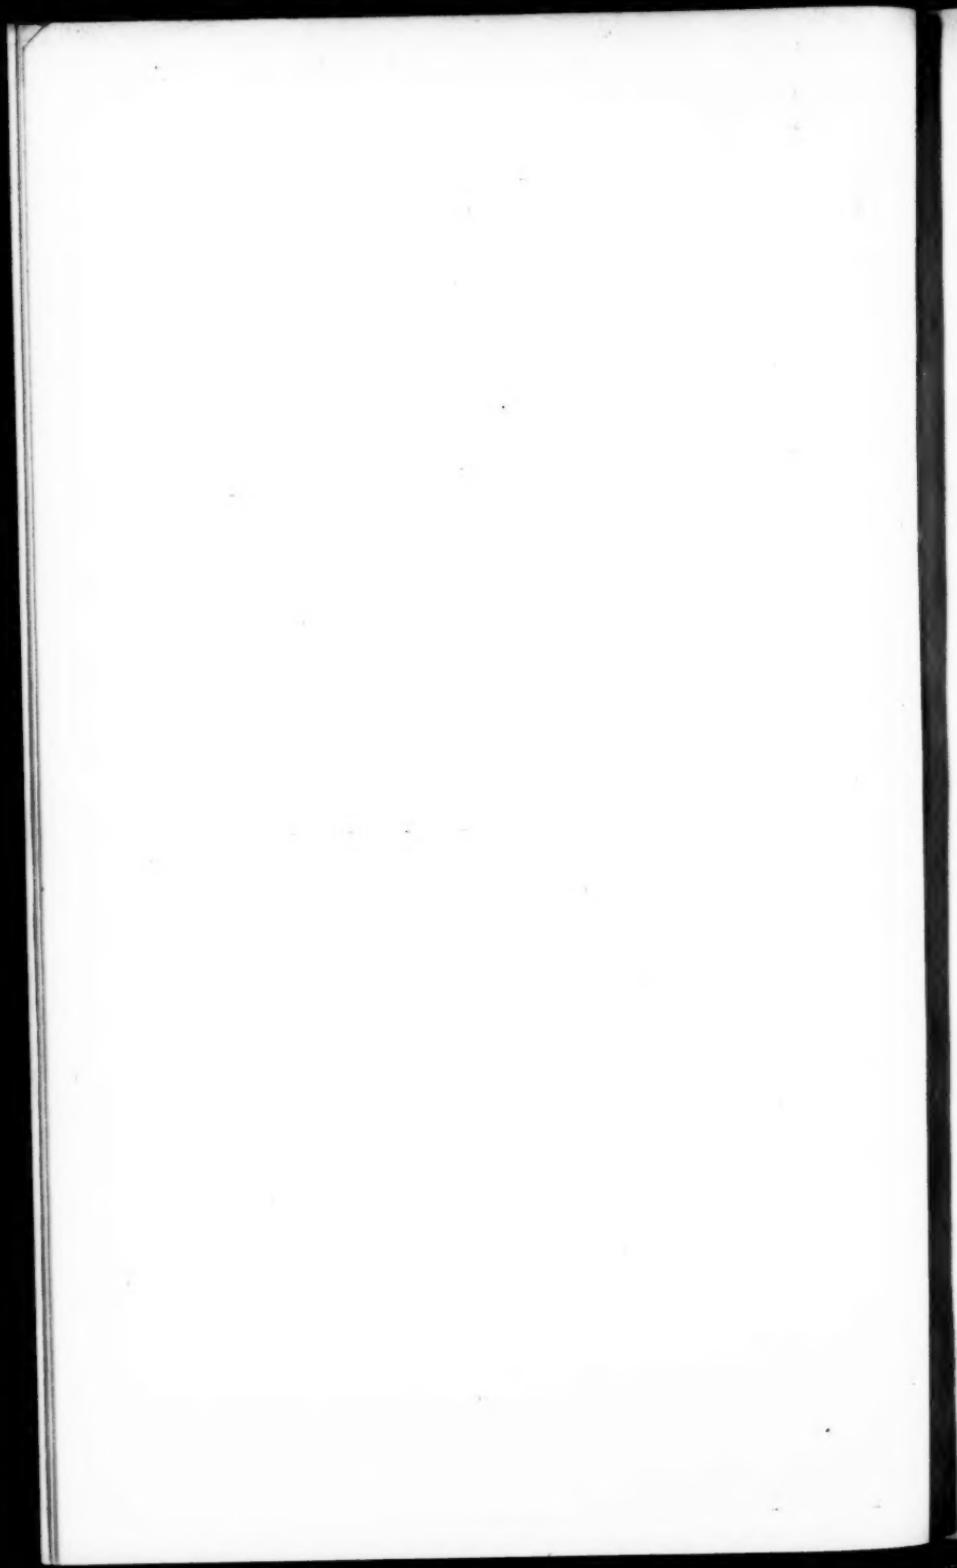

Causes of interest felt at announcement of "Endymion"—Outline of the story—Personalities of "Lothair" do not reappear in this novel—The character of Nigel Penruddock—Thackeray and Lord Beaconsfield.

Contents.

iii

165
76

	PAGE
ART. VIII.—JUSTICE TO IRELAND	165
Misery and lawlessness, manifestations of the Land Question—Destitution and suffering in certain districts —Relations of Tenant and Landlord a great difficulty— History of their relations—Legal efforts to settle the difficulty—Tenant-rights in Land Act of 1870—Causes and remedies of social disorganization—The Land League — Proposed remedies : Reform — The three F's—Griffith's valuation—Is coercive legislation needed? —What coercion amounts to.
LETTER OF POPE LEO XIII. ON ST. THOMAS OF AQUIN	196
97
NOTICES OF CATHOLIC CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS	199
Historisch-Politische Blätter—Stimmen aus Maria Laach —La Scuola Cattolica—La Civiltà Cattolica—Revue des Questions Historiques—Revue Générale.
NOTICES OF BOOKS	208
117
Bishop Ullathorne's Endowments of Man—Translation of Alzog's Universal Church History—Abbé Martin's Anglican-Ritualism—Dr. Lee's Church under Queen Elizabeth — Oerhoffer's Organ School — Dering's Freville Chase—Dr. Walsh's Tractatus de Actibus Humanis —Sir C. Gavan Duffy's Young Ireland —Miss Cusack's Case of Ireland Stated —Father Morris's Apostle of Ireland and his Modern Critics —Life of Henri-Marie Boudon — Mr. Graves' Irish Songs and Ballads —Father Pesch's Institutiones Philosophiae Naturalis — Cozza-Luzi's Historia S. Benedicti — Professor Delitzsch's Messianic Prophecies — Dr. Abbott's Authorship of Fourth Gospel —Sister Frances Clare's Life of Blessed Virgin —Dr. Tiele's History of Religion — Duke of Somerset's Monarchy and Democracy — Wallace's Philosophy of Aristotle — Leigh's Story of Philosophy —Jenkins' Handbook of Literature — Ozanam's Vie de F. Ozanam and Baunard's Vicomte de Melun —Ollé-Laprune's Certitude Morale .
145

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
ART. I.—WESTERN SUSSEX	251
Ancient and modern definitions of "Antiquities"—Antiquities an inseparable part of history—Not to be treated by ordinary historical method—Antiquities of Western Sussex divided into Celtic, Roman, Saxon, Mediæval—Subdivided into Episcopal, Monastic, Feudal, Parochial, Domestic, and those relating to former iron manufacture— Ecclesiastical Antiquities admit of division according to view taken—Celtic Antiquities : Cissbury Camp—Roman Antiquities: Roads—Roman Villa at Bignor—Art and architecture in Roman Villas—Roman remains at Sutton and Duncton—Sepulchre at Avisford—Saxon Antiquities: Churches—Church at Sompting—Timber and Stone construction.
ART. II.—METHODS OF HISTORICAL INQUIRY	269
Meaning of "Method" and of "History"—Importance and functions of the Comparative Method—True meaning of "Ancient" and "Modern" revealed by it—Comparative Philology, Mythology, study of Customs, Politics, and Jurisprudence—Some erroneous methods of historical inquiry—Subjective sources of disturbance in historical inquiry: influence of Imagination—Prejudice—The emotions—Special mental complexion—Language—Difficulties in recording contemporary events.
ART. III.—A FRENCH STUDY OF CHRISTIAN WOMANHOOD	288
M. Dantier's track across a wide subject—Christian heroines distinguished by humility—The early centuries—Chivalry and devotion to the Madonna in the thirteenth century—St. Teresa against the Reformation—The seventeenth century in France—The Encyclopædist in the Salons —Elizabeth Seton—The Society for the Propagation of the Faith—The work of religious orders of women—Life in the world: Madame Swetchine and Lacordaire—Christian ideal of womanhood—Departure of the world from the Christian ideal—The modern agitation in some points false because unfeminine—Mgr. Dupanloup and Mgr. Mermillod on woman's mission—Mary, the type of Christian womanhood.

ART. IV.—THE DAYS OF THE WEEK AND THE WORKS OF CREATION 311

Various theories for reconciliation of cap. i. Genesis and science—“Period” theory at variance with recent science—Present Paper aims at solution of problem by a different route—Value of recent archaeological studies—Character, education, and mission of Moses—Egyptian Calendar and Jewish idolatry—Dedication of Days of Week as check to idolatry—Objection from categoric statements of Genesis answered—Poetical character of cap. i. Genesis—Hymn of Moses compared with other accounts of creation: significant points of difference—Summary of the argument used.

ART. V.—THE “CORPUS MISSAL” AND ITS PROBABLE DATE 333

Contents of Missal—Has been satisfactorily edited in almost every part—Introductory matter less satisfactory: gratuitous assertion of Protestant character of Irish Church—Wrong notions of editor on Supremacy: and results—Data for ascertaining age of the Missal—Value of the historical allusions in it: terms Scoti, gentilitas, spirituale sacrificium—Petitions for the preservation of “The King of the Irish”—Prayers for the Emperor; what they prove—Writer's opinion that Missal was written before twelfth century—Reasons: Quinquagesima Sunday and beginning of Lent—No Prose in Corpus Missal—No “Gloria in Excelsis,” &c.—Contains Feast of All Saints—Missal written between middle and end of ninth century, probably in 849.

ART. VI.—RITUALISM ESTIMATED FROM WITHIN AND WITHOUT 350

Useful comparison of Abbé Martin's with Dr. Lee's book—Ritualists' peculiar way of “being Catholic”—They forget that Catholic Church is a fact as well as a creed—Dr. Lee puts the cart before the horse—Is he serious?—He proves that his Church is no Church but that people are to remain in her pale—Some of his criticisms disquieting for Anglicans—Necessity for converts of believing in the Catholic Church—Abbé Martin over-estimates the importance of Ritualistic movement—The opposition it has aroused disproportionate to its importance—Dislike of Ritualists for obedience—Abbé Martin's mistaken distinction between the Church and the Establishment—Ritualists growing Liberal—Mr. Gladstone and the Abbé—His “Spirit of Christian Religion” a “spirit of examination” answered.

ART. VII.—THE GENIUS OF GEORGE ELIOT 371

Sadness of her end—Her depth of feeling—Hence the living strength of her characters—Her creative faculty wins for her a share of glory with Goethe—George Eliot the Epic Pythoness of Science—Her works a grand epic in prose—Her earlier minute accuracy of detail—Her worship of Mother Earth—Her abundant humour most astonished the world—How far she accepted Perfection of the world through Survival of the Fittest—A tableau of her humours contrasted with one of Dickens's—Her gifts energized by the religion she preached.

ART. VIII.—CATHOLIC MISSIONS IN CENTRAL AFRICA 394

The Dark Continent virgin soil for present missionary enterprise—Given to this century—Fruit of older missions abundant, recent ones scanty : reason why—Recognition of Livingstone's good services—Various Catholic Missions from the coast inwards—Difficulties in their way : polygamy, slave trade, Mahometanism—Difficulties of travel—Encouraging instances of fidelity of convert natives to the faith—Account of Mgr. Comboni's mission : districts confided to him—Khartoum, the principal station, unhealthy—El Obeid chosen in preference—Thence new mission sent to Noubas of Delen—Difficulties of Noubas mission—Hopes chiefly with the rising generation.

ART. IX.—THE RUSSIAN CHURCH: ITS HISTORY AND PRESENT ORGANIZATION 422

Origin of Christianity among Slavs and Russians—Saints Cyril and Methodius, apostles of Russia—Russian

	PAGE
Church becomes schismatic—Patriarchate of Moscow—Origin of the Starovertzi—Various kinds of Rascolniks—Creation of the Holy Synod: its present constitution—Peter the Great's Canon of Church Reform: its enactments—Present State of the Russian Church—Present Composition of the Holy Synod—Revenues of Bishops—Government, &c., of the dioceses—Present Bishoprics—The White Clergy described: their revenues and duties—Life of Monks and Nuns—Causes of miseries and abuses in Russian Church—The civil authority the great obstacle to re-union with Rome.
LETTERS OF POPE LEO XIII.	451
NOTICES OF CATHOLIC CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS	459
Historisch-Politische Blätter—Stimmen aus Maria Laach—Literarische Rundschau—La Scuola Cattolica—Revue des Questions Historiques—Revue Générale.
NOTICES OF BOOKS	472
Darmsteter's Translation of Zend-Avesta—Sayce's Introduction to the Science of Language—Dawson's Dictionary of Hindu Mythology, &c.—Muir's Metrical Translations from Sanskrit Writers—De Bunsen's Angel-Messiah—Dr. Heinrich's Dogmatische Theologie—Cardinal Hergenröther's Kirchengeschichte—Cox's Commentary on Book of Job—Father Coleridge's Life of Mother Ball—Wallon's Tribunal Révolutionnaire—Fournier's Officialités au Moyen Age—Froude's English in Ireland—Mrs. Craven's A Year's Meditations—Appleton and Sayce's Dr. Appleton—The Variorum Teacher's Bible—Du Boy's Catherine d'Aragon.
BOOKS OF DEVOTION AND SPIRITUAL READING	508